A LITTLE EUROPE IN CANADA

Montréal, Canada's 2nd largest metropolis and fashion capital is also the second largest French-speaking city in the world after Paris. Although many people believe that it is the provincial capital of Québec, that honour belongs to Québec City. Montréal, is however, the bilingual (French/English) and cultural centre of North America. Nearly 90% of residents are bilingual, with only certain sections of the city remaining almost completely French or completely English. Alive with culture, fashion and European flair, Montréal is truly one of Canada's most beloved cities.

Notable features:

- In 2007, Montréal was ranked as the 10th cleanest city in the world
- French is the language most spoken at home by approx. 70% of the population
- English-Only schools available for international students
- Considered to be the fashion capital of Canada - some of the best & most trendy shopping can be done on Ste. Catherine street
- Well known for its exceptional parks and green spaces
- Professional Sports teams: NHL hockey (Montréal Canadiens), CFL Football (Montréal Alouettes), USL Soccer (Montréal Impact), MLB Baseball (Montréal Expos), ABA Basketball (Montréal Royal), RCSL Rugby (Québec Caribou)
